

Community leaders join Wilton Historical Society as new officers and trustees at annual meeting

WILTON – June 17, 2010:
At the annual meeting of the Wilton Historical Society at 224 Danbury Road on June 17, the members elected 12 community leaders as new officers and trustees.

Tierney O’Hearn of Old Westport Road was elected Co-President of the Society and will join Dr. Greg Chann of Twin Oak Lane in leading the organization. Other elected officers were: Rick Smith of Ridgefield Road as First Vice President; Buck Griswold of Keelers Ridge Road as Vice President of Endowment Development; Bob Kelso of DeForest Road as Treasurer; and Jeff Yates of Seeley Road as Secretary.

New officers and trustees of the Wilton Historical Society include, from left, Greg Chann, Co-President, Helen Stauderman, Tierney O’Hearn, Co-President, Tara Day Ermark, Heidi Huber, Jeff Yates, Secretary, Karl Dolnier, Bob Kelso, Treasurer, and Rick Smith, First Vice President.

New Trustees of the Society are: Mary Elizabeth Cote of Oak Ledge Lane, Karl Dolnier of Bittersweet Trail, Tara Day Ermark of Liberty Street, Peter Gaboriault of Edgewater Drive, Heidi Huber of Silver Spring Road, Greg Rodiger of Spicewood Lane and Helen Stauderman of Timber Top Trail.

“There are many exciting developments taking place at the Society and we look forward to the contributions of our new officers and trustees as we continue to grow and expand our connection with the community,” said Dr. Chann. “The Society thrives on the commitment and dedication of our volunteer leadership team who put in countless hours to make the Society’s events, programs and museum a vibrant part of Wilton.”

At the annual meeting, members of the Society also thanked those who had completed their terms of service as trustees: Hunter Brown, Kerry McMahon, David Michael, Lora Sherman and Karen Tesar.

Information www.wiltonhistorical.org or 203.762.7257.