

Volunteer Opportunities

The Wilton Historical Society welcomes your help. Whether you can volunteer for just a few hours or on a regular basis, we invite you to join us in bringing the history of Wilton to life. Here are some of the ways you can help. If you have any questions, please contact Scotty Taylor at scotty@wiltonhistorical.org or call us at (203) 762-7257.

Please check the opportunities that interest you; return this form to the address below.

Tour Guide

Conduct tours of the museum for visitors, occasionally on weekends. We welcome both adults and high school students in this position. Training is provided for our guides.

Museum Assistance

Welcome our visitors, sell gift shop items, and help out with office duties as needed, such as answering phones; during the week and on weekends. The museum is sometimes very quiet, other times it can be very busy.

Marketing/Communications Assistance

Help us post announcements of our events to online and media outlets.

Wilton Militia

Bring town history to life by reenacting the experiences of the early Wilton Militia. Wear an 18th century uniform and participate in drills, battle reenactments and community parades. Details available about age restrictions and costumes.
